A special meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held at Rev. Derr's on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock Nov. 10th. All members of the union are requested to attend.

The mermaid, a fabled marine animal, in one of the display windows of James Buchanan Arnold's store is a curiosity. The free exhibition was opened to the public yesterday.

The fame of the Lotus Club is so wide that it would be "painting the lily" to say anything here in praise, except to add that new laurels were won last night. Miss Marshall delighted everybody.—Harrisburg Telegraph. Will appear in Reynoldsville Nov. 21st.

The gentleman who has the letting of the house on Jackson street, referred to last week, was not aware of the fact that the people who live in it were such a nuisance.

Jas. L. Schofield, of Penfield, and several other hunters who are camping in the wilds of Clearfield county have killed fifteen bear this season. They had eight dead ones in camp at one time last week.

Lena, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Geisler, died at 3.15 A. M. Tuesday, Nov. 7th, of diphtheritic croup. Lena was five years and six months old. Her remains will be buried in the Catholic cemetery to-day.

We have made an investigation and discover that all cases but one of typhoid fever, and most all cases of diphtheria have been in families where well water is used. You can draw your own conclusions in the matter.

Wilkesbarre has often been visited by musical combinations of various kinds, but none have ever appeared to give the satisfaction the Lotus company gave last night.—Wilkesbarre News-Dealer. At Centennial Hall Tuesday, Nov. 21st.

The "gypsy social" given in the G. A. R. hall last Thursday evening by the Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian church, was a very enjoyable affair. A gypsy wedding, fortune telling, music, and refreshments was the evening's program.

The concert and entertainment to be given in the church at Pancoat next Tuesday evening, Nov. 14th, is for the benefit of the brass band. The proceeds to be used towards buying several new instruments. The entertainment begins at 7.30. Admission 25 cents.

We received an anonymous communication yesterday morning which we dropped into the capacious mouth of our waste basket. The people who will never learn that all communications must be signed by the writer, will not find their article in the newspaper.

The evening entertainments for the teachers' institute next week are as follows: Monday, a free entertainment; Tuesday, The Torbett Concert Co.; Wednesday, The Torbett Concert Co.; Thursday, an electionary, and musical entertainment by Miss Sara Jefferis and others.

The regular price the Lotus Glee Club gets for every one of their entertainments is $150.00. An open date on their way from Lock Haven to Pittsburg gives the people of our town the opportunity of hearing the best Glee Club that travels. Miss Marshall's recitations and select readings are worth the price of admission alone.

"Who weeps with you when you are sad, and laughs at you when you are glad, and smiles at you when you are mad? The editor. Who has to be both kind and wise, and never (hardly ever) lies, and when he does creates surprise? The editor. Who owns a heart as well as cheek, is possessed of spirit, proud, yet meek, and lives on forty cents a week? The editor."—Ex.

An effort will be made to get a special train to run up to DuBois Friday night for Geo. R. Wendling's lecture. Prof. E. C. Shields, formerly of this place, says: "Hon. George R. Wendling's lecture, 'The Man of Galilee,' is, without doubt, the finest ever delivered before the Clearfield County Teachers' Institute. American's greatest lecturer on this greatest of all subjects forms the strongest attraction that can be presented to any audience."

L. J. McEntire, judge of election in this borough, was not here yesterday and there was a dispute as to whom, the Republican or Democrat inspector, had the right to appoint a judge of election. It was not settled until the Feb. election returns were found to see which inspector had the most votes. Julius C. Ferris, R, had 162 votes and S. T. Dougherty, D, 148. Ferris appointed E. Neff, Esq. The poles were not open until eight o'clock.

The Reynoldsville Volunteer and the DuBois Courier are having a "hitch" on the way the Sykes, Allis & Moorhouse woolen mill was located at Reynoldsville instead of DuBois. True the DuBois people did not raise any money to offer as an inducement to have the mill built there, but the Courier's denial does not change the facts in the case, and that is that ground was offered free and a proposition was made by a number of the business men of DuBois to induce Sykes, Allis & Moorhouse to locate in their town. The Courier is generally well posted on everything that is going on in DuBois, but they are off this time.

A weather prognosticator has issued his proclamation in regard to the coming winter, which he says will be a terror with deep snows and cold weather. He says the meadow moles are burrowing deeper this year than for the last 30 years. The "melt" of the hogs is whiter than common, which means much snow and ice. The hair on the horse's fetlocks is longer and thicker than common. The squirrels are laying up bigger stores of food than usual; corn husks are remarkably thick, as are the onion skins. There is more moss on the hickory saplings and spruce trees, which is a sure sign. The goose bone says the same thing, and the pin feathers on chickens are more numerous than for many years.

Cars Ranaway.

Twenty-two empty coal cars got away from the "grip car" at Big Soldier mine yesterday forenoon and ran into the mine, which has a steep grade, at a reckless speed and were wrecked in the mine. Fortunately there was no one injured.

Tickets on Sale.

The season tickets for the lecture course will be on sale at Henry A. Reed's store at eight o'clock Tuesday morning next, Nov. 14th. All who have promised to take season tickets will please remember this and call early and secure a good seat.

A Reduction for Mining Coal.

Elsewhere in this issue we publish a notice from the Bell, Lewis & Yates C. M. Co. to the effect that after the 16th of this month a reduction on mining coal and outside labor will be made. Forty cents per net ton for run of mine will be paid after the above date.

Northern Lights.

Did you see the grand display of Aurora Borealis, or northern lights, last Wednesday night? The display began almost before the last gleams of day light had faded, and at 8.00 o'clock was one of the most brilliant sights that has been witnessed for some time.

A Big Beet.

F. K. Arnold, the veteran ex-banker, has one of the best gardens in this town, in fact the garden is too rich for certain kinds of vegetables. Mr. Arnold pulled a red beet out of his garden last week that weighed ten pounds and ten ounces. This beats all beets in this section.

Is it Pride, or What?

William Orlando Smith, editor of the Punxsutawney Spirit, is either getting proud because he was prominent in the last legislature, or else he intends dropping out of politics and does not care whether he stands in with the brethren or not. We're led to this conclusion from the fact that Bro. Smith has not exchanged with us for three weeks.

Trouble at Brookville.

The school directors of Brookville borough refused six children of the Memorial Home admission to the borough school, and a mandamus has been issued upon the directors. If they still refuse to let the children attend the public school, according to the exigency of the law, they will have to give their reason therefore in the Court of Common Pleas before Judge Clark November 10th.

Council Meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of the town council was held at Thos. H. Scott's office on Monday evening. Council was requested at a previous meeting to open Ninth street, from Jackson to Grant street, and a committee was appointed to investigate the case and they reported unfavorably for opening the street. By motion Jacob Sutter and Henry A. Reed are to grade the sidewalk in front of their property on Main street, near the postoffice. A petition was handed to the council requesting that new sidewalks be built in the neighborhood of Worth street. Bills to the amount of $2,183.11 were ordered to be paid. Of this amount $1,290.11 was for lumber; $550.00 to Water Company for use of 22 fire plugs; $70.00 interest on bonds.

Lost, Not Stolen.

Some people are very forgetful and frequently blame other people for their own faults. As an evidence of this, a farmer living near Panie was extracting stumps out of a piece of land he owns. He tied his log chain to the root of a large stump to haul it off the land and unhitched the horses and left the chain on the stump. In a few days he wanted the chain and could not find it. He immediately decided that some person had stolen the chain and he kept "his eye peeled" for the thief, but failed to discover any trace of the chain. Several days ago the farmer was walking through the clearing with a friend and they found the chain just where the farmer had left it. We believe that frequently things have been stolen, as the person may believe, when in reality they have only been mislaid. Don't be too hasty in drawing your conclusions.

Church Dedicated.

The new Presbyterian church at Big Run was dedicated last Sunday evening. This church is a very neat and pretty edifice that cost nearly $4,000 when ready for dedication. Rev. H. R. Johnson, pastor of the Reynoldsville church, accompanied by Elder J. K. Johnston, drove to Big Run Sunday morning to perform the dedicatory services. When Rev. Johnson arrived at Big Run he found the pastor looking very solemn because there was nine hundred dollars to raise to clear the church of debt, and every person had come about to the end of their giving. Bro. Ryland, who is pastor of the church and editor of the Echo, said it would be impossible to raise the money Sunday, but Rev. Johnson was not hopelessly discouraged, and he succeeded in raising almost eight hundred dollars. The church was dedicated Sunday night. The Big Run church sent Frank R. Allison, of the Allegheny Seminary, to fill Rev. Johnson's pulpit last Sunday.

Ready for Business.

The Lecture Association have engaged the following talent for the season of 1893-4: The Lotus Glee Club Concert Co. Nov. 21st; John Temple Graves, Dec. 12th; Major Dana, Jan. 13th and Chaplain McCabe, February 9th. The fifth lecturer has not been engaged yet. This will give our people the best lecture course they have ever had in Reynoldsville. The committee have engaged these men at a big price and it will be necessary for the citizens of Reynoldsville to give them a liberal patronage. The Lotus Glee Club is the best of the kind that travels to-day. Miss Minnie Marshall accompanies the Club and her reading will not only surprise but delight the audience. John Temple Graves, editor of "Dixie," of Atlanta, Ga., is one of the most eloquent men on the platform to-day. Major Dana opened the course at this place last year and the people of this town were well pleased with him. Chaplain McCabe is so well known that he needs no recommendation from us. If our people appreciate a good thing, and we believe they do, the hall will be packed when these attractions appear. Those who have not already given their names to the committee for season tickets should do so at once.

Getting Strict.

Mileage books have been issued by the A. V. Ry Co. for some time to individuals, families or firms, at a rate of two cents per mile, on condition that the books be used only by the parties for whom purchased. Little by little the purchasers have grown careless about who uses their books until mileage books are used very extensively to-day, regardless of whose name is signed in the book. The A. V. Ry Co. have decided, as far as possible, to put a stop to this practice and have given their conductors strict orders to lift all books presented by persons whose name is not signed to the agreement entered into when the mileage book was bought. We believe, according to conditions, if the book is presented by any other person than the rightful owner, the company keeps the book even if there are only a few miles used out of it. If this is strictly enforced, borrowing mileage books will soon lose its popularity. Don't sour on the conductor if he takes a book from you, his job depends on obeying orders.

Good Topics.

The Jefferson County School Directors' Association will hold its forth semi-annual meeting in the Court House at Brookville at 10.30 A. M., on Thursday, Nov. 10th. The topics for discussion are: "What care and oversight should directors exercise for the preservation and safe-keeping of all school property, such as buildings, furniture, books and supplies?" "Should the school term be increased in view of the increased State appropriation?" "Should we have a compulsory system education?" "Do the schools give sufficient attention to the inculcation and use of good manners, and a courteous regard for superiors and for the aged?" These are good topics to consider, and especially the last one. We see evidence on our streets daily that home and school both have failed to inculcate the use of good manners, etc., in many of the boys and girls of our town.

Where Do They Pinch?

The following extracts from Proverbs were intended to fit all those who can put them on:

"A forward man soweth strife: and a whisperer separateth friends."

"A fool's wrath is presently known: but a prudent man covereth shame."

"Excellent speech becometh not a fool: much less do lying lips a prince."

"The lip of truth shall be established forever: but a lying tongue is but for a moment."

"Heaviness in the heart of man maketh it stoop: but a good word maketh it glad."

"There is a way that seemeth right unto man, but the end thereof are the ways of death."

Shot in the Leg.

Harry, young son of Isaac Cratzen, of Hopkins Mill, was accidentally shot last Thursday, the ball entering his right leg just above the knee. Harry and several other boys were playing together and one of the boys had an old revolver which, as is usually the case, went off just when the boys were not expecting it. Harry was brought to Reynoldsville, but as the boys' mother was afraid to let the physician administer chloroform to probe for the ball, the Doctor could not do much with the case. The boy was taken to Lock Haven Friday morning, but the Doctors of that city failed to get the lead out of the boy's leg.

Business Change.

M. J. Coyle has sold his interest in the Racket store to F. K. Mullen, who will continue the business at the old stand. Mr. Coyle, who has been in business here over a year, is a very energetic and gentlemanly fellow, who thoroughly understands running a store. He will embark in the shoe manufacturing business in Pittsburg the first of the year, will own an interest and travel for the establishment. We wish him success in his new undertaking.

Yesterday's Election.

At 10.30 A. M. 25 townships were heard from which gives the Republicans a majority of from ten to fifteen hundred on the entire county ticket.

Clearfield county elected Judge Gordon, Republican, over Judge Krebs, Democrat, by a majority of 400.

New York elected a Republican state ticket by 40,000 majority.

Pennsylvania went Republican over 100,000 majority as near as we can learn as we go to press.

Notice!

Office of B. L. & Y. C. M. Co., Reynoldsville, Pa., Nov. 8, '93.

Notice is hereby given that, taking effect on and after the 16th inst., the price of mining in the company's mines will be 40 cts. per net ton for the run of mine coal, and the price of other labor outside and inside the mines will be in proportion.

Our chief reasons for the above are that reductions have been made in mining in regions highly competitive with ours. In the Pittsburgh district the price of mining has been generally reduced from ten to twenty cents per ton. This region is now securing a large amount of our business in Buffalo, Western New York and Canada. In Eastern New York and the New England states other competitive districts are producing at less cost, making prices we are unable to meet, and taking trade we have supplied for many years. There are other reasons we might adduce. Our men very well know the general stagnation in trade, and we hope will readily accede to the situation. GEO. H. LEWIS, Pres. S. B. ELLIOTT, Gen'l Manager.
